

HOUSE RULES

Welcome to the historical Palacio, founded in 1672, your Majorcan retreat embraced by the charming Serra de Tramuntana. Grand Hotel Son Net depicts the epitome of authentic sophistication and serene privacy.

As we trust that our guests contribute considerably in preserving the perennial refinement of Grand Hotel Son Net, we lovingly request from you to respect our residence's rules:

Please, refrain from taking photographs at the pool areas which may involucrate the appearance of non – familiar individuals.

Please, refrain from making phone calls which may disturb the other guests' tranquility.

The use of bathrobes and slippers is strictly prohibited outside your room or our Spa.

After 8pm, please, make sure you are wearing a smart casual attire while walking around our public spaces. Please refrain from wearing sportswear, shorts, t-shirts for gentlemen in our Green Bar, Restaurante Mar&Duis and chimney room.

With no exception, all of our rooms and suites are non-smoking.

While we love the harmony that pets bring, unfortunately they are not permitted on the property.

Kindest regards,

The Management
